Wednesday 29th November

No Pens Day

Fladbury CE First School will be putting down their pens and pencils in support of children who struggle with talking and understanding words.

Please be aware we have a child in school with a severe nut allergy. Consequently we ask all families to be considerate of this and do not provide sandwiches with Nutella or other chocolate alternatives as some other chocolate spreads may contain peanuts and other nuts. Thank you for your understanding.

From the office:

Please can all families ensure long hair is tied back whilst at school and only SMALL studs to be worn. If they cannot be removed for PE, parents MUST provide tape to cover them. However we would prefer earrings to be removed prior to the lesson, either at home or in school. Thank you

Parent Skills Questionnaire

Thank you to those parents that have already completed the online survey. Don't forget you have until Friday 1st December so we can gather responses and organise ready for the Spring Term.

The link to the survey is on Dojo
